

Adenike Adeyemi

Adenike Adeyemi is the Executive Director for FATE Foundation, a leading Nigerian non-profit established in 2000 with the mission to foster wealth creation by promoting business and entrepreneurial development in Nigeria. Before joining FATE, she worked as an Engagement Manager for development, public sector, nonprofit sector and family business clients in the Management Consulting unit of KPMG Advisory Services, Nigeria. Prior to NLI, Adenike was the pioneer Coordinator/Executive Director for the Nigeria Leadership Initiative (NLI) where she facilitated the transition of NLI from an idea into an operational organization and coordinated the launch of several NLI flagship programmes. She started her professional career with the West African NGO Network (WANGONET) in 2001 as a Training and Administrative Assistant. Adenike has been engaged with the human capital development commission of the Nigerian Economic Summit Group (NESG) and is currently an active mentor for the Cherie Blair Foundation's Women in Business programme.

She has a Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Linguistics from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria. She also has a Masters degree in Public Administration (MPA) and a Master of Arts (MA) in Diplomacy and International Relations from Seton Hall University in the United States.
