

Amber Fowler

Ms Amber Fowler Amber is a Partner and Chief Operating Officer for EchoVC, overseeing operations and portfolio development. Prior to EchoVC, Amber was Vice President, Finance at Founders Fund, a venture capital firm with over $1B under management. She was responsible for the management and operational activities for Founders Fund's entire fund complex, including their FF Angel funds and portfolios. Before this, Ms. Fowler founded a consulting practice working primarily with technology startups, which she ran for 14 years in Silicon Valley providing finance, operational, tax & audit, and financial systems integration projects and services. In addition to tech startup clients, she also worked with several non-profit, philanthropic organizations primarily focused in the humanitarian, women and children, and health sectors. Some notable clients include: The Dalai Lama Foundation, Terma Foundation, and the Thiel Foundation. Ms. Fowler has a BS in Accounting from the University of Washington and she is a Kauffman Fellowship mentor.